The opening of a Shandy at Chikjogihally was Sanctioned in G.O. no. L. 2317-22/LB. 30-45-66 dated 10th Aug. 1946

"B"

It is reported that the Shandy is held at a place between Chikjogihally and Issur, & that the people of the latter place wanted it to be called "Issur Shandy" instead of as Chikjogihally Shandy. The D.B. at their meeting held on 30th & 31st Oct. 1946 resolved that the Shandy may be named as "New Issur Shandy". The D.C. while forwarding the letter of the P.D.B. Shimoga remarks that he sees no reason for such a change.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No.L.392/W.R. dated 5-7-47 calling for my opinion in the matter of changing the name of Chikkajogihalli Shandy as 'New Issur Shandy', I have the honour to state that I have inspected the area. It is found to be situated in Chikkajogihalli limits and during the inspection, it was ascertained that the Shandy is not being held owing to the fact that the merchants of Shikaripur, who form the majority among the Shandy - merchants are against the formation of this Shandy for fear that their local Shandy at Shikaripur would suffer in case this Shandy developed.

The Issur villagers have paid the cost of acquisition of the Shandy site and for that reason consider that the site belongs to their village. There is no order of Government assigning this area of Chikkajogihalli to Issur village. Till this is done the Shandy has to be called after the village in whose limits the Shandy is conducted.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
